

This week we are looking at the book Zog. If you have got this book you can put it in your home learning area.

You can also watch Zog on the BBC iPlayer: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b0bwdw8y/zog>

And you can watch it being read here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=frA8PS8rfh8>

Week 5: day 1

Can you put the events in the story in order?

You can either create a story map and put it into your 'Learning from Home' book, or you can use the grid on the other side of this page and create a story board

	Year1	Year 2	Year 3
Year 4	Year 5

Week 5: day 2

Name of pupil: _____

Report for Year _____

This year, Zog has been learning to _____

Zog did very well at _____

Zog needs to practice _____

Golden stars earned this year: ★★★★★

Special comment: _____

Signed: _____

Pretend you are Madame Dragon. Can you write a school report for Zog? (There is an example on this page, but you can do it in any way you like.)

Choose a year to report on and write about how well Zog did in that particular task.

Week 5: day 3

Can you write some sentences which describe Zog?

In your 'Learning from Home' book have a go at writing a description of Zog.
Remember to use, full stops, capital letters,
neat handwriting and adjectives!

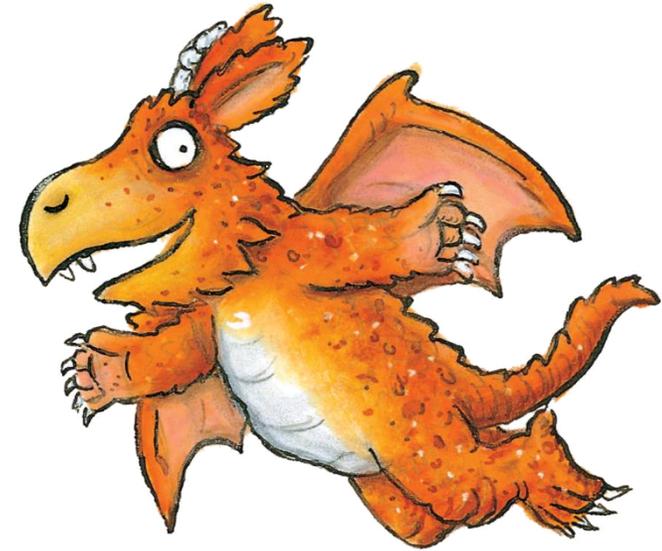

Do you know what a synopsis is?

A synopsis means a summary of something

Can you write a synopsis of the Zog story?

Going Deeper: Whenever you write something think about the audience you are writing it for. Can you add a question to capture their interest? For example: Did Zog give up? Not at all!

Week 6: day 1

Using the template provided can you write a postcard from Zog to his family telling them how he plans to become an ambulance for the Flying Doctors? You can use one of the pictures above to decorate the front of your postcard – or use an idea of your own.

Going Deeper: Can you choose specific words and phrases which convey his excitement at his decision to do this?

Wanted Poster

See daily planner for details

Imagine that one of the animals in the story is being interviewed by the police. What would they tell the police about their encounter with the Highway Rat?

Choose one of the characters and write some sentences that you think they would say to the police in an interview.

Week 6: day 5

Julia Donaldson

Julia Donaldson is the author of The Highway Rat and Zog.

Can you think of any other books that she has written?

We are going to do a bit of 'research on Julia Donaldson today.

Have a look at Julia's website to find out a bit more about her: <http://www.juliadonaldson.co.uk/index.php> (There are lots of lovely things to watch and do on here!)

Can you find out four (or more!) facts about her and write them in your 'Learning From Home' book.

Don't forget you can watch other Julia Donaldson stories on the BBC iPlayer.
