

Mexico

---

Map and Flag

Location

Mexico borders the USA and Cuba. The oceans that are around Mexico is the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean also there is the Caribbean sea. Mexico has nearly 150 rivers. Mexico compass points are Mexico is south of the USA and is west of Cuba.

Key Facts

The currency is Mexican Peso

The land mass is 1972550 square km

There are 100 native American languages still being spoken in Mexico they also speak Spanish. The most important of the native American languages is Nahuatl

The capital city of Mexico is Mexico city

Traditional Festivals and National Holidays

---

The traditional festivals and national holidays of Mexico are:

- New Year's day – 1st January
- Mexican Constitution day – 5th February
- Birthday of Benito Juarez – 21st March
- Mexico Labour Day – 1st May
- Mexico Independence Day – 16th September
- Revolution Day – 20th November
- Change Of Federal Government in Mexico – 1st December
- Christmas – 25th December

What Is Mexico Famous For?

---

Mexico is famous for many things that include:

- Beaches
- Corn
- Chocolate
- Famous for its food

Hobbies

---

Mexico has lots of different hobbies which are chess, checkers, horseback riding and diary writing.

